

BSL Community Hall

The Bay St. Louis Community Hall is a vibrant facility that is used for many of the larger functions in our community.

Location in the historic Depot District of Bay St. Louis, the BSL Community Hall features a 6,630 square foot grand hall, a 1,700 square foot gallery hall, exterior porch spaces, a large stage complete with sound system and several meeting rooms. The multipurpose facility is designed for meetings, conferences, receptions, parties, celebrations, live performances, fundraisers, and much more. The grand hall will accommodate 650 in a theater-style layout and 420 around tables in a banquet setting. The BSL Community Hall also has an oversized, state of the art commercial kitchen perfect for dinners and banquets.

Outside also includes a small pavilion with green space, 5 benches and 4 picnic tables. The pavilion can be used for weddings or other special events.
