#7 Bay St. Louis, Mississippi

Bay St. Louis features a skyline that beautifully embodies the laid-back charm and coastal beauty typical of the Gulf Coast. Situated along the shores of the Mississippi Sound, the city's skyline is defined by gentle, sandy beaches and marinas filled with boats, reflecting its strong connection to the water. Iconic structures like the Bay St. Louis Bridge add a modern architectural element, while the historic, artsy downtown, with its quaint shops and old buildings, brings a sense of timeless charm. The presence of lush, green landscapes and sprawling live oaks draped with Spanish moss further enhances the city's picturesque quality.
