

Witch's Walk

Bewitching beauties of every ilk prowled the spooky streets of Bay St. Louis! Hundreds of witches and their merry covens strut through the streets of Old Town Bay St. Louis on the Saturday before Halloween in the annual Witches Walk. Many "warlocks" and wizards join the fun adding to the festivities.

The event, put together by Yuki Fisher Northington, Nancy Bingham Wiebmer, and Karen West, offered prizes for Best Costume, Best Broom, and Best Hat, as well as shopping specials, great photo opportunities, and a wildly good time. All are invited to participate and are encourage to dress up and enjoy the Witches Walk.
